

Gentlemen:

I hope that you are not planning to limit the services that XM radio provides. I subscribe to XM radio and therefore pay for information as well as entertainment. I would find it amazing that the FCC or Congress would limit how I spend my money and limit what I can send money on and limit how I obtain information.